

BADGER ARCHIVES

DUST
A-G
H-Q
R-Z

This fellow
Diplomacy players
and gamemasters is
issue #2 of BADGER AR-CHIVES, affiliated with Five Seasons Press (#xlix).
Published every three months,

this 'zine is allowed to exist on the excuse that it helps me keep track of all my trades and stuff like that. Actually, in reality, it is an attempt to begin to compile statistical data for the Diplomacy community. This issue, for instance, will contain reports on my trade arrangements from October 1 - December 31, 1972. Beginning next issue, I hope to begin publication of a limited catalogue of Diplomacy articles, not unlike a card catalogue. This limited start will cover the first three months of 1973 for 'zines that I receive only. By the way, while we're at it, my address is: Fred C. Winter, Box 604, Madison, Wisconsin 53703 USA. Please correct all of your addresses to conform with the one listed above. Subscriptions to this horror show are free to whoever I trade with and undetermined to anyone else, probably because no one else wants it. This 'zine also serves as the emergency home of the Boardman numbers should Conrad F. von Met ever be in default in assigning them. Trades are welcome all Diplomacy 'zines, and I will throw in Carbon 13, my main publication as well, although it will go third class, in one pound (that horrid unit of measurement equal to .45 Kilograms) or every three month batches, whichever comes first. If you think it's been easy to try and keep this all going for a page your mistaken. This
'zine is not associated with any Dip lomacy organizations. "Organization is the first sign of decay." Diplomacy, in case any of you were wondering, is a registered trademark for a game invented by Allan B. Clahamer, and published by Games Research Inc., 48 Wareham Street, Boston, Massachusetts, 02118. It is available from them for $8.00. Ponder, ponder, what else can I say here on page
one. Oh yes, circulation of this thing is now 32 plus and free distribution I feel like. Grone, I've still got about an inch to go to fill up this State. Pretty big, hay. The tax rate is pretty big, too! You wouldn't want to live here, really, but I guess it could be worse. Anyway, After this line, I'm all finished. Yaaa!

REALITY!

Trades and the like:

As of right now, I am only trading with about $\frac{1}{2}$ of the known publishers in postal Diplomacy. Shortly, like about a month, I will again go through the complete mailing list and send sample issues for trading purposes, untill then, we can let it rest. If you know of someone, however, who is not trading with me, please inform him. I will accept a trade with anyone! It is hoped that by 1974 we will have trades with all publishers. Oh yes, should I inherit the custodianship of the Boardman numbers, this 'zine will be distributed free to all publishers. At that time, I will hope that each of you will send all of your 'zines containing games to me for records keeping purposes.

'Zines recieved:

This list covers all 'zines recieved between October 15 and December 31, 1972. It is by no means complete.

1. Bernie Ackerman; Foreign Office Journal: None
2. Joe Antosiak; Anchluss: 9
3. Herb Barents; Boast: 20-22
4. Stephen Bell; Carpetbagger: 3-4
5. Doug Beyerlein; Washington Reports: 1
6. John Boardman; Graustark: 276-280
7. Ray Bowers; Midwest Courier: None*
8. Walter Buchanan; Hoosiers Archives: 93-99
9. John Boyer; Impassable: 11-14
10. Steve Cooper; Armadillo: 12-13
11. Michel Feron; Moeshoeshoe: 36-45
12. Chic Hilliker; Silmarilli, the: 1-3
13. Richard Holcombe; Pacific Diplodeur, the: V.5, V.6*
14. Richard L. Hull; Tangelo Express:
15. David Hunt; Alpha: 5-7
16. Graham Jeffery; Der Krieg: 1-4
17. Eric Just; Diplomat, the: 63
18. Burt Labelle; Antaries: None*
19. Len Lakofka; Liasions Dangereuses: 38
20. John Leeder; Arrakis: 1-5
21. Michel Liesnard; La Guerre en Dentelles: 1-4
22. Don Miller; Diplophobia, Gamesletter, the: None*, None*; respectively
23. Hal Naus; Adge Inc., other various subzines: 73, four other 'zines
24. Hartley Patterson; War Bulletin: 37
25. Larry Perry; Xenogogic: V.2, V.3
26. Karl Pettis; Crush: None*
27. John Piggot; Ethil the Frog: None
28. Lewis Pulsipher; Blood and Iron: 9/10, 11-13
29. Paul Stone; Stoned: 2
30. Buddy Tretick; La Guerre: VI.12*
31. Brenton ver Ploeg; Platypus Pie: 13-17
32. Conrad F. von Metzke; Constaguana: VI.5-VI.7, other various 'zines, 11 in all, much miscelanous information, Everything...: 1-4
33. Fred C. Winter, Carbon 13: 32-38, other various publications, 3 in all.
34. Paul J. Wood, Yggdrasill Chronicle: 14

* Means that several others were recieved durring this period, but before I began keeping records and thus are not counted.

All for this issue.